

What the neighbors say about living on Laurel Hill Drive

- Many hiking trails in the neighborhood and nearby, including parts of the Robert Frost and the Metacomet-Monadnock Trails
- Private road, cul-de-sac; no through traffic.
- Peaceful; quiet
- Birds and other wildlife share the space comfortably
- Great for walking your dog; dog-friendly community.
- An eclectic mix of business people, doctors, professors, social workers, musicians, clergy, retired folks, families raising children
- Co-op store two miles away
- Very private but neighbors willing to help one another at a moments notice
- Some long views; lovely sunsets.
- No snowmobiles or ATV's
- Heavily wooded, 60 acres conservation land
- Five-college university community attracts quality music, dance, crafts, theater, and restaurants.
- Excellent road maintenance, especially in the winter, by the Leverett Highway Department
- Leverett is wonderful: Leverett Co-op; Montague Book Mill (books you don't need in a place you can't find) and Restaurants; New England Peace Pagoda; Leverett Crafts and Arts: great elementary school; public library.
- Love the easy access to I-91 across the Sunderland Bridge. What a pleasure it has been not to have to deal with backed-up Rt. 9, college traffic, and the Coolidge Bridge. You can always drive the speed limit all the way regardless of the time of day.
